Legal & Testimonial Disclaimer

Individual results may vary, testimonials are not claimed to represent typical results. All testimonials are from real patients, and may not reflect the typical patient's experience, and are not intended to represent or guarantee that anyone will achieve the same or similar results. Every person has unique level of commitment, experiences, exercise habits, eating habits, and applies the information in a different way. Thus, the experiences that we share from other people may not reflect the typical users' experience. However, these results are meant as a showcase of what these patients have achieved. You should not begin our program if you have a medical condition that precludes acupuncture or changes to nutritional or exercise habits. Ancient Spring Acupuncture is a clinic of Licensed Acupuncturists that provide guidance and treatment within the legal scope of practice as regulated by the Idaho State Board of Acupuncture. Our advice is not a substitute for medical advice from a physician, and we do not diagnose medical conditions. Please consult a physician before beginning any exercise or diet program.
